Dear Mr. Tam,

I write to respond to your February 19, 2008 and February 27, 2008 Employment Discrimination Complaint - Amendment #2. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a), because defendant has already answered your complaint, you may only amend your complaint by leave of court or written consent of defendant. While defendant will consider your proposal to amend the complaint to include an allegation that "create mental stress for the Plaintiff," defendant does not consent to your proposal to include "Hate crime against the Plaintiff" because it fails to state a claim. It appears that you are seeking leave to file criminal charges in a civil lawsuit.

I also write in response to your objections that defendant failed to provide the "original bid assignment sheet with the driver signatures for year 2002" and various information regarding listed "candidates who became the Bulk Mail Supervisors." First, as I have previously explained, defendant cannot produce the original of any document to you. Rather, defendant has produced true copies of documents responsive to your requests. Second, the information described in your January 8, 2008 objections regarding the listed "candidates who became the Bulk Mail Supervisors" has not been the subject of any of your discovery requests.

Should you have any questions or concerns about the foregoing, please contact me at (415) 436-6967.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH R. RUSSONIELLO
